The CWA conference committee is still accepting workshop proposals for the conference. In the past, workshops have included discussions on business development, risk management, as well as hands-on workshops focusing on route setting, workplace safety, climbing instruction and other topics. If you are interested in presenting a workshop or leading a compelling roundtable discussion, please get a proposal form here: <http://www.climbingwallindustry.org/cwscfp08.php>

The CWA looks forward to another successful conference. Register by February 15, 2008 and save $200 over the walk-in rate!

About the Climbing Wall Association, Inc. (CWA). The CWA is a 501(c)(06), non-profit, industry trade association incorporated in May of 2003 for manufacturers of climbing wall equipment, builders of climbing walls, operators of climbing walls, and others involved in the climbing industry. The CWA is the only trade association addressing the needs and interests of the climbing wall industry and climbing wall operators. The mission of the Climbing Wall Association is to support the development of the climbing wall industry, to promote the sport of climbing, and to advocate for the interests of our members.
